NEW BUSINESS:

1. Icebreaker

Leah had members break into two groups. Each group had a stack blue cups with one red cup mixed in. Object was to move the red up throughout the blue stack, moving it one cup at a time and having each person in the group take a turn. It was a race to get the red cup to the top of the stack before the other team. This helped the board draw closer and utilize teamwork. No action taken.

2. Teambuilding

Cassidy recycled the cups from Lead and had those same two groups build a tower, one cup at a time. Each person inside the group could only stack one cup and they rotated positions. First team to build and de-construct the tower won. This exercise helped the board with communication skills as well as working together. No action taken.

3. Special Events

Small discussion took place on upcoming City sponsored events. Cassidy read a list to the group. George encouraged everyone to attend the MLK events and described the Appreciation Dinner event to the new members. No action taken.

4. Future Agenda Items

Madelyn asked to include a teambuilding aspect that was focused on fun. Board tents to be more relatable and closer as a team when they are relaxed and having fun. Focus on the youth aspect of the board. Chris mentioned epilepsy awareness. Leah would like to introduce the cigarette prevention program again. Cailet wants a follow-up on the STAND group. No action taken.

5. Reports from Committees

Only the Teen Events Committee met. Leah was voted Chair of that committee. They are hoping to put on a "teen party" event and want to meet with Adam Johnson, Teen Coordinator. Item was tabled until next month. No action taken.
