

The National Center on Family Homelessness's newly released Engaging Veterans and Families to Enhance Service Delivery: A Tool Kit for Community-Based Organizations discusses the impact of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI), and offers useful tools for veteran outreach, including understanding the unique experiences of female veterans, and maximizing veteran participation in programs and services.

This new resource is winning positive reviews:

"...the best most polished and comprehensively substantive resource I have seen offering best practice solutions and recommendations that community-based organizations and other stakeholders can use to reduce homelessness and other reintegration problems for warriors and their families."

Lieutenant Colonel (Retired), US Army, Infantry, Stephen K. Scroggs, Ph.D., the EVP, Government affairs & Development for ValueOptions Inc.

"All I have to say is 'wow.' The pictures are culturally relevant – every veteran, every family member can find themselves there."

Pamela Stokes Eggleston, Veteran Caregiver, and Director of Development, Blue Star Families.
