

Commendations and Awards

1030.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

It is the policy of the Peoria Police Department to recognize and acknowledge outstanding individual or group achievements, performance, proficiency, heroism, and service of its employees and the citizens of the community through its awards program.

1030.2 WHO MAY MAKE COMMENDATIONS

A written commendation may be made by a supervisor regarding any other employee of the Department, provided the reporting person is superior in rank or is the person in charge of the individual being commended. Additionally, investigating officers may commend uniformed officers for exceptional assistance in investigative functions, with approval from the investigator's supervisor. Any employee may recommend a commendation to the supervisor of the employee subject to commendation.

A written commendation may also be made by a member of the public regarding any Department employee.

Written recommendations for a citizen's meritorious acts may be made by any member of this department or any member of the public.

1030.3 EXCEPTIONS

The Chief of Police has the authority to grant any award in this policy without going through the Awards Committee if deemed appropriate.
