

The Growing Suburban Drug Issue

The Peoria Police Department is encouraging parents, teachers, and those who interact with adolescents and young adults, to attend an educational meeting on growing drug abuse trends in our community.

When: December 12th at 7p.m.

Where: Sunrise Mountain High School Auditorium
21200 North 83rd Avenue, Peoria

Speakers will offer an honest and frank discussion on the abuse of heroin, opiates, and opioids from the perspective of police officers, former addicts, parents struggling with a child's addiction, and experts from behavioral and treatment programs.
