

NEIGHBORHOOD GRANTS PROGRAM

The City of Peoria's Neighborhood Grants program is designed to assist neighborhood-based improvement projects to prevent the decline of neighborhoods throughout the city. Both Traditional (Non-HOA) and HOA based communities. Neighborhood groups and associations who are active partners in their community and interested in improving the quality of life of their neighborhoods are encouraged to apply. The Neighborhood Grants Program is subject to annual funding allocations determined by the Mayor and City Council. Up to $12,000 may be awarded toward any eligible project.

Restrictions/Exceptions and Special Circumstances

- ❖ NO administrative funding will be provided to any communities.
- ❖ Swimming Pools:
 - Submittals should be a SAFETY issue such as decking, fences, security, etc. (No Heaters).
 - All pools must have the most recent Maricopa County Environmental Services Department Water and Waste Management Division Swimming Pool Inspection Report included with application.
- ❖ Cannot be a FOR-PROFIT Community (i.e. Most Apartments, Commercial Businesses)
- ❖ Traditional Neighborhoods (Non-HOA)
 - Improvements made, should be to the neighborhood as a whole. Individual property/home improvements involved in the project can only be of the following nature: gravel, rock, grass, exterior painting, and minor exterior repairs.
 - Each homeowner included in the project must write a brief description of what they expect to have done to their property and must individually agree to, and approve of the grant request.
 - Ideas for Traditional Neighborhoods:
 - *Neighborhood Clean-up Campaign
 - *Pedestrian-friendly Amenities
 - *Landscaping of Traffic Islands
 - *Placement of House Numbers on Existing Homes
 - *Improvements to Neighborhood Entryways (Signage/Landscaping)
 - *General Landscaping Projects
 - *Neighborhood Identification Signs
 - *Perimeter Wall Painting

Required Items

- ❖ "Before" Photos of Proposed Project – clear, color photos
- ❖ Price quotes - Three (3) price quotes for professional services and materials (for physical improvements).
- ❖ Evidence of Neighborhood Support – Signed minutes of meetings, ballots, petitions, etc. showing the support from your neighborhood of the grant application request.
- ❖ Private Property Approval Form(s) – Must attach all necessary private property permission forms for those property owners directly impacted by the project. This is primarily for NON-HOA communities.
- ❖ HOA Board Resolution - If a Homeowners' Association, you must attach a signed resolution of the board members authorizing the grant request.
- ❖ HOA Financial Statement – If a Homeowners' Association is unable to meet the 50% cash match requirement, the HOA's most recent financial statement and Reserve Study must be attached.
- ❖ Miscellaneous Items – Any other items – i.e. recent newsletters or neighborhood flyers that show communication regarding the grant project; special brochures or trade publications that visually depict the improvement you are seeking, and any other items (sketched plans) you may feel appropriate for this grant request.
