

CHAPTER 23 – STREETS, SIDEWALKS AND PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS

Sec. 23-105. Telecommunications; city police power; continuing jurisdiction.

(a) The provider shall at all times be subject to all lawful exercise of the police power by the city, including any and all adopted codes, subdivision regulations, guidelines and standards rules, or regulations which the city has adopted or may adopt, and all laws, rules, regulations, orders, and policies of the state and the United States government. In the event of a conflict between this ordinance and other provisions of the City Code, the stricter requirement shall apply.

(b) Continuing jurisdiction. The city shall have continuing jurisdiction and supervision over any facilities located within or on city rights-of-way. However, it is recognized that the daily administrative, supervisory, and enforcement responsibilities of the provisions of this article and the permit shall be delegated and entrusted to the city manager or his designee to interpret, administer, and enforce the provisions of this chapter, and to promulgate standards regarding the construction, reconstruction, relocation, maintenance, dismantling, abandonment, or use of the facilities within the city rights-of-way.
(Ord. No. 97-115, 12/9/97, enacted)
(Ord. No. 99-12, 3/16/99, renumbered from Section 23-102) (SUPP. 1999-1)
