Peoria AZ

As one of Arizona's fastest growing communities, Peoria abides by traditions that make newcomers feel right at home. Founded in 1886 by four families who had made the trek west from Peoria, Illinois and landed in the Valley of the Sun, the city of Peoria has seen many changes both within and around its borders. Since 1980 it has grown from a small town of around 12,000 to a dynamic community of over 140,000 and more than 1.2 million people within a thirty-minute commute. Geographically covering 178 square miles, Peoria offers ample room for continued job and population growth.

The city is exploding with numerous new business locations and is attracting a variety of new employment opportunities. Peoria has outstanding recreational and extra-curricular activities, a reasonable cost of living, and a young, intelligent work force. It is easy to see why individuals, families, and businesses are flocking to this desert oasis.

WELCOME!

Thank you

Thank you for choosing the city of Peoria to establish your business. Peoria prides itself on being open to new ideas and encouraging entrepreneurship.

Peoria City Code requires that all persons conducting business in Peoria must first obtain a license. This includes businesses within the Peoria city limits, or those outside the limits who conduct business or perform services within Peoria. Churches/service organizations engaging in business for a justified nonprofit purpose (501c), certain agricultural operations, and newspaper carriers are not required to be licensed.

This guide is meant to help you through the process of obtaining a City of Peoria Business License. If at any time in the process you need assistance, contact:

Before You Start

Before You Start

Before the doors open on a business operating within Peoria city limits, there are important local regulatory issues* that require attention. This brochure is meant to be a guideline only and additional approvals may be necessary. For complete details pertaining to your business regulations, refer to the departments below. Compliance with the following is mandatory for operation:

Planning & Zoning 623.773.7371

- Verify the zoning of your proposed location allows for your type of business
- Apply for permit(s) that are required including signage
- Verify your parking requirements

Code Enforcement 623.773.7162

All home based businesses located in city limits should contact the department regarding the following matters:

- Storage of vehicles and/or materials used for business
- Signage at business and/or on vehicles
- Customer contact and/or deliveries
- Allowance of employees at site
- Hours of operation - limits

Fire 623.773.7279

This department has specific regulations and restrictions concerning:

- Hazardous materials
